

Fundraising Event for EDO HOUSE CULTURAL CENTER

Name of the Association: Edo United Club of Sacramento (EUCS), a member of Edo National Association Worldwide (ENAW)

Websites: <http://Edosac.org> and <http://www.enaworldwide.org>

- EUCS is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting and supporting the unity, self-reliance, and solidarity of Edo indigenes at home and Diaspora. The goal of the association is to promote the rich culture of Edo people in the United States of America.
- As a member of ENAW, EUCS supports the projects embarked by ENAW.
- EUCS has donated classroom furniture such as tables, chairs and desks to the students of Bishop/Immaculate Conception College in Edo State, Nigeria.
- EUCS provided a borehole/ pipe borne water to the impoverished community in Edo State of Nigeria. The borehole provides the Edo indigenes access to clean water.
- The association is launching a capital campaign for the Edo House Cultural Center (EHCC). There will be a fundraising event on Dec 10, 2016. Grant writing, community support, and funds raised through this fundraising event will help to bring the EHCC to fruition.
- The mission of EHCC is to offer the community programmatic services that include mentoring programs, cultural and educational initiatives for children and young adults.
